Welcome to this charming and very well-kept villa in sought-after La Siesta, Torrevieja - an oasis of peace and privacy where you can enjoy both sun, comfort and Mediterranean feel all year round and with a private heated saltwater pool!

Here you live on a private plot of approximately 400m² with private parking, a large heated saltwater pool and a beautifully landscaped garden with fruit trees such as tangerines and figs. The plot offers several lovely places both in the sun and shade during all hours of the day. From the generous roof terrace you have sun most of the day and a fantastic view of the area and the sparkling salt lake. The location is perfect - close to nice restaurants, walking paths and social areas.

When you enter through the private entrance gate you are greeted by a lush and harmonious garden, ideal for sunbathing, relaxing and swimming in the inviting pool. The large covered veranda facing south will quickly become a favorite place for both meals and socializing in the beautiful Mediterranean climate. There are also solar panels here that contribute to low operating costs and a more sustainable living.

Inside, the house is characterized by light, space and comfort. The open living room and dining room are connected by a cozy fireplace that creates a warm and inviting atmosphere. The fully equipped kitchen is conveniently located next to it and has direct access to the back of the garden, where you will also find a nice outdoor kitchen - perfect for long, lovely dinners with family and friends.

A big plus is the separate guest area, complete with a spacious bedroom, private bathroom and smart storage space - ideal for visitors who want a little extra privacy.

In the main house there are two more bright and airy bedrooms with built-in wardrobes and a modern, fresh bathroom with shower.
